

Spreyton Guest House

Environmental Policy and Social Responsibility Policy

Hayden & Wendy Taylor of The Spreyton Guest House acknowledge their social responsibility to manage the environmental effect of their use of services.

To encourage good environmental procedures and social awareness through businesses and recognised charities in Weston-super-Mare.

- To comply with relevant environmental legislation and regulations
- To identify any effect of activities on the environment
- To evaluate levels of consumption of energy and water used
- To recycle materials where possible
- To give assistance to customers, local businesses, and charities to use products and services available in an environmentally and sensitive way, supplying appropriate training and information where necessary
- To regularly review and assess processes and achievements in environmental practices
- To keep up to date with developments within the G.T.B.S. and Hoteliers and Charities respectively.
- Try this web address and check out your Electricity COULD YOU MAK A DIFERENCE greenelectricity.org

Please help us in our efforts, and inform us if you have more ideas.

Everyone can make a difference by being a greener supporter and visitor.

Thank you.